COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

MONDAY EVENING, Nov. 16.

THERE is nothing in the commercial telegrams received from home since Saturday beyond what we have already noticed. All the London markets are extremely dull, and naturally so with the general election only a few days off. Nor is the news from Eastern Europe likely to improve matters. Actual hostilities may be restricted to Servia and Bulgaria, but the possiblity of trouble amongst the Great Powers will still be there, and as regards the influence on business the unknown possibility is frequently more adverse than the actual fact.

The Bank of Bombay return for the week ending on Saturday shows the following changes :—

Public Deposits at H. Office	Dec	Rs.	5,09,013
	Branches	Dec	" 5,25,481
Other Deposits	Inc.	"	41,103
Government Securities	Dec.	"	63,176
Loans	Dec.	"	1,53,788
Bills Discounted	Inc.	"	4,77,638
Cash with other Banks	Inc.	"	5,500
Cash and Currency Notes	Dec.	"	12,41,675

Of this decrease in the Cash Balance the withdrawals of Government funds account for upwards of 10 lakhs, leaving only 2 lakhs as the increase in the trade demand. This of itself would be unimportant, but the figures have some significance from the fact that no appreciable amount of the previous week's withdrawals has returned to the bank. The inference would be that it has been absorbed by trade requirements, but in the existing dull state of business and light receipts of produce we hesitate to accept that view, and incline to the belief that strong as the bank's position is at the moment it will be stronger before it is weaker.

EXCHANGE.—Business has been extremely dull here to-day, and the transactions reported have been quite insignificant. This is partly attributable to a holiday in Calcutta, but mainly to the complete stagnation in trade generally. The banks have lowered their drawing rates for short-dated bills by 1-32d., but in the matter still show a considerable amount of steadiness, 3 months' Credits having been in the market at 1s. 6 11-32d. without finding buyers. Demand Bank paper, however, has been negotiated for January delivery at 1s. 6 3-16d. per rupee. Ready rates are as follows :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 6 5-32d.	per rupee
Do. Telegraphic	1s 6¼d.	"
Do. Three months' sight	1s. 6d.	"
Credits " " "	1s. 6¼d.	"
France " " "	1196.	"

GOVERNMENT PAPER is exceedingly quiet. Fours ready have receded to Rs. 97½ and for delivery in a month to Rs. 97. For Fours-and-a-half we still quote Rs. 99.

SHARES.—The market gives no sign of improvement. In Spinning and Weaving mills the general tendency is still towards ease, and in two or three instances a reduction of Rs. 5 is quoted. Mofussil Press shares have again improved Rs. 2½, being now quoted at Rs. 305. In the miscellaneous list we notice a decline of Rs. 25 in Bombay-Burmah Trading, first issue being at Rs. 3,725. Kemp and Co., Ld., have hardened slightly to Rs. 305, Treacher and Co. to Rs. 1,125. Barton and Co. are back to Rs. 75.

COTTON to-day has been exceedingly quiet. So far as we can learn, buyers at home show no disposition to improve their offers, but sellers here are as firm as ever, and nothing but pressure of stocks, when it comes, will apparently induce more willingness to sell. Quoted rates to-day are :—

	Good.	Fully Good.	Fine.
Bengal ready	163	169	178	Nov.
Do. delivery	158	164	175	Dec.
Omras	191 Nov.
Broach	188 Dec.
Do. delivery	212 March.
Dholleras. Do.delivery	186 April.

WHEAT has been quiet on the spot, with only a small business passing, and for soft descriptions rates are perhaps the turn easier, but hard qualities keep firm. In New No. 1 Soft White for April-May delivery there has been a little doing at Rs. 2-15 per cwt. The following are current prices to-day per cwt. railway terms :—

No. 1 Pussy ... 3-13-6 at 3-15.
No. 1 Club Delhi ... 3-11-3 at 11-6.
Red Delhi ... 3-7
Red Aodalchand ... 11-6.

SEEDS.—Linseed is quiet at Rs. 6-11½ to Rs. 6-12 ready, Rs. 6-3 March, and Rs. 5-15 per cwt. for May delivery. New Guzerat rapeseed is quoted at Rs. 6-1 per cwt. railway terms.

FREIGHTS.—The market is still very slack, both for ready and forward business. A steamer is reported to have been fixed for Belfast November loading at 22s. per ton with pockets, and relets in the Cambodia for Antwerp are said to have been done at 19s. 3d. Current quotations are :—

	Ready.	Forward.
Liverpool		17-6 to 20

Open Charter	22-6	22-6 to 25
Havre	22-6	22-6 to 25

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1885.

THE movement for establishing a Technical College in Bombay, though little has been heard of it of late, has been neither forgotten nor suspended. It is still making progress, albeit in a not very visible way, and we hope that the progress that it is making is not the less real because it is going on almost entirely out of sight and out of hearing. The truth is that the stage at which the movement has arrived is at once the most essential and the least ostentatious of the several stages through which every project must pass. The promoters have to make up their minds what it is that they want, for until they have done this they cannot approach Government with any formal request for its co-operation in establishing the school. THE WAR IN UPPER BURMAH.

PROCLAMATION BY GENERAL PRENDERGAST.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

RANGOON, Nov. 16.

General Prendergast has issued the following Proclamation to all priests, officials, landholders, traders, and other residents in Upper Burmah :—

In consequence of the refusal of the Burmese Government to grant redress of various injuries inflicted on British subjects, and to accept the proposals of the Viceroy for an amicable settlement of the existing difficulties, I have orders to advance with an armed force to Mandalay.

The decision of the Government of India to send its troops into the territory of a neighbouring State was arrived at very unwillingly, and must be regarded as the result of a long-continued series of provocations. The reign of the present King has been marked by the violation of treaties, and acts of aggression on the British frontier, outrages on British subjects, injustice to British traders, an external policy systematically opposed to British interests, misconstruing the forbearance of the British Government. These are the serious causes of complaint.

The King lately attempted to impose an arbitrary fine of ruinous amount on a British trading company, peremptorily refusing a conciliatory offer that the matter be submitted to an impartial inquiry.

Under these circumstances the Government of India were constrained to address to the King an ultimatum demanding the acceptance of certain definite proposals for the settlement of the question and the establishment on a satisfactory basis of the future relations of the two countries. These proposals met with an evasive reply and the simultaneous issue of an openly hostile Proclamation. The force under my orders accordingly crossed the frontier for the purpose of exacting compliance with the demands.

It has further become evident that there can be no hope of improvement in the condition of affairs in Upper Burmah so long as the present occupant of the throne remains in power. The Government of India have decided that he shall cease to reign. There has been less hesitation in arriving at this decision from the fact that he has not only exercised great oppression and cruelty towards his own subjects, but that his administration has been allowed to fall into such disorder as to fill the country with marauders, exposing the neighbouring British possessions to their inroads.

It is the earnest desire of the Viceroy to avoid bloodshed. Peaceful inhabitants of all classes are encouraged to pursue their usual callings without fear of molestation. None of you have anything to apprehend, so long as you do not oppose the passage of the troops under my command. Your rights, religion, and national customs will be scrupulously protected.

The Government of India will recognise the services of all among you in showing zeal and assisting the British authorities to preserve order, whether officials or others.

Last Thursday Mr. Raikes, Deputy Commissioner of Thayetmyo, received information that a Burmese steamer of seven guns was proceeding to fortify Toungwin island, reinforce Simboungweh, and obstruct the river by sinking boats where the channel was narrow. Mr. Raikes asked Colonel Sladen to take special measures to insure the safety of the Kintier and capture the King's steamer. The Irrawady accordingly started, Mr. Raikes and Colonel Sladen accompanying. The result has already been wired. The villages are deserted. Captain Clutterbuck, having no men to assault, merely ordered the capture of the steamer, which was successfully done, with two flats prepared for being sunk in the channel. The strength of the enemy and his loss is unknown owing to dense jungle in the neighbourhood. Two Woons were seen with the Burmese force.

The Irrawaddy captured the steamer brought down by the Kathleen from Sinboungwea, which is completely destroyed by Irrawaddy's shells.

The Thendah at Minhla and the Woungwon at Sinboungwea has offered to obtain the heads of General Prendergast and Colonel Sladen within a fortnight.

The annual Choral Festival will be held in the Cathedral to-morrow evening. The offertory will be given to the Girls' School Building Fund.

UNDER instructions from the Government of India the quarantine imposed at Aden and Perim on arrivals from all Indian ports from Bassein to Bombay, and Ceylon, had been abolished.

MR. CADWALLADER WADDY, barrister-at-law, and editor of the Madras Law Times, is a candidate for the representation of Wexford borough, in the "Republican interests of Ireland." His grandfather was twice member for the county of Wexford. Mr. Lewis MacIver, barrister-at-law and of the Madras Civil Service, is the Radical candidate for Torquay.

THE office of Judicial Superintendent of Railways in H. H. the Nizam's dominions will cease to exist after the end of the current year. As superintendent of police will be appointed to do the duties on Rs. 600 monthly. Lieutenant-Colonel A. F. Dobbs (M. S. C.), who was doing duty in the 3rd Cavalry H. C., was appointed to be Judicial Superintendent in March, 1869, and now vacates to enter the Contingent service again as 2nd-in-command of an infantry corps. We are told that a protest will be submitted to the Government of India by some of the officers who consider they are aggrieved by the appointment.

THERE has been a net decrease of 2,495 tons in the principal commodities carried on the Nizam's State Railway during August last as compared with the corresponding month last year. The principal decreases are 659 tons grain and 589 tons of salt. In August, 1884, there were 6,832 tons carried and only 4,337 tons last August.

THE visit of Mr. C. P. Ilbert to Madras derives some interest from the fact that it is half-a-century since a Law Member of the Government of India paid that Presidency the compliment of a visit.

THE steamship Indus is known to have had £40,000 in gold on board when she sank near Trincomalee. From Madras she took indigo of the value of Rs. 2,26,500, hides Rs. 99,060, cinchona Rs. 12,344, carpets Rs. 7,500, sugar Rs. 2,000, and tea Rs. 1,250.

IT is reported that Mr. G. N. Barlow, Commissioner of Bhagulpur, is in very indifferent health, and will probably have to proceed home at once on sick leave.

THE High Court at Madras has suggested that a new scale should be adopted for the subsistence allowance for prisoners in the civil jail. Europeans, Americans, and Eurasians are to be allowed twelve annas a day first-class, eight annas second-class, and four annas third-class ; whilst natives are to be allowed nine annas first-class, six annas second-class, and three annas third-class. On medical or special grounds, the court is to have power to order such increased allowance as it may think fit. The Government has forwarded the suggestion to the Inspector-General of Jails for his opinion.

IN addition to the Nyoung Oke and the Meingoon Prince there are several other possible candidates for the Burmese throne. The Nyoung Yan Prince, who died in Calcutta last hot weather, left two sons—a blind youth of nineteen, now at Rangoon, and a boy of ten or twelve, still living in Calcutta. There are, besides, some half-a-dozen lads in different monasteries in Upper Burmah, who have proved insignificant enough to escape the delicate attentions Theebaw paid to all his relatives who were likely to reach whom he feared on the throne, but who still possess enough of Royal blood to warrant their elevation to the position he is not likely to be allowed to abuse much longer. There is no hard-and-fast law of succession in Burmah. In theory, the King nominates his successor, but in practice the usual experience has been that he who could come best out of the scramble which has generally followed the death of an Avan monarch seized the throne, and held it as long as he could.

THE Indian Daily News is nothing if not captious. If, in dealing with the Upper Burmah question, the Government of India has shown any particular quality more conspicuously than another it is prompt manner in which it has followed up the demands contained in the ultimatum with energetic and decisive action ; yet we find the Calcutta paper complaining of the waste of time over what it calls the "Burmah business." "The frontier," it declares, "should have been crossed immediately the receipt of King Theebaw's reply made an advance necessary and certain. In this way much possible trouble would have been saved in the future, because, in addition to the enemy being allowed less time for preparation, the moral effect of prompt action would probably have been great in regard to the Burmese King's proclamation to his subjects." The Calcutta paper apparently forgets—or, in its hurry to get to Mandalay, does not perhaps think such a course necessary—that the reply to the ultimatum had to be translated and telegraphed to the Viceroy, and that the orders of the Government of India, after consultation with the Secretary of State, had to be obtained before Theebaw's territories could be invaded.

A STATEMENT has been published to the effect that the Government of Bengal have sanctioned the sum of Rs. 12,000 to be expended upon additions to the nurses' quarters at the General Hospital. This is not quite correct. The committee of the Hospital Nurses Institution, finding that they could not increase their staff of nurses unless additional accommodation was provided, volunteered to devote the sum of Rs. 7,000 to that purpose if the Government of Bengal would add to the existing buildings. This proposal was accepted, and His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor promised to give Rs. 4,000 from provincial grants to complete the scheme.

THE Rev. C. H. Spurgeon, the famous Baptist preacher, made some remarks on the 19th ult., about what people expect of Government :—"The fancy now in politics seems to be to trust to the Government. The Government is to do everything ; the Government is to give every man a piece of land and a house, and so much a year for living in the house ; Government is to put a fire into every man's grate, and a pot over it, and potatoes into that pot ; and the Government is even to give every man a knife and fork and salt ; and I am not sure whether the Government is not even also to eat the potatoes."

IT is stated that Sir Arthur Sullivan has undertaken to compose a new sacred oratorio expressly for the Leeds Festival next autumn.

THE statement that Portugal has ransomed 300 negroes who were condemned to death by the King of Dahomey sounds well, but, according to "Traveller" who writes to the Morning Post, "this means that the Portuguese have now commenced a nefarious slave-trade between Dahomey and St. Thome. I was told by Portuguese planters at St. Thome that not above fifteen per cent. of the 'contract labourers who came from Angola lived to complete the five years' term of engagement. Dahomey is comparatively close to St. Thome : how simple to hoist a flag at Whydah and ransom negroes as fast as they are required at St. Thome ?"

THE Salvation Army in France appears to have acquired a notable recruit in the person of a certain Major Fakir. This individual's claims to sanctity rest chiefly upon the fact that on one occasion he wrote the name of God-upon 20,000 slips of paper, which he threw into the river to sanctify the fish and the souls of those who might eat them ; and on another he remained three days and three nights up to his neck in water without moving or eating. Profane people (remarks Truth) might be disposed to suggest that temporary detention in a lunatic asylum would be the best cure for the "major's" enthusiasm.

Truth declares that anything "more childish than the boycotting of Lord Randolph Churchill by the two Tory dailies has never been seen, even in the annals of London journalism." His lordship, it appears, did not send any copy of his manifesto to either the Morning Post or the Standard, and by way of tit for tat neither of these papers has either commented on or even published a word of the manifesto in question. "I cannot honestly say," Mr. Labouchere adds, "that in my opinion the readers of those journals, or any one else, will be much worse off for the omission ; still from the Tory point of view the boycotting of one of the only two articulate leaders of the party certainly seems strange, and throws a curious light on the alleged harmony of the Tory happy family."

ACCORDING to the United Service Gazette, a new use has been discovered for the musical instrument of torture called the bagpipes. Last year, it seems, a Spanish soldier was brought to the military hospital at Havana in a state of catalepsy, and for fifteen months he showed no signs of improving health. At last the doctors ordered the bagpipes to be played near his bed, whereupon the man promptly recovered consciousness, and is now able to articulate. Truth remarks that their music may be strongly recommended to persons suffering from nervous or hysterical disorders, and generally speaking, to malade imaginaires of every description. Whether the disease or the remedy is the worse must be left to the judgment of the invalids themselves.

DEPRECIATION OF SILVER AND THE INDIAN FOREIGN TRADE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Everyone has said that the depreciation of silver has given an impetus to the Indian foreign trade. Mr. Maclean read a paper before the Society of Arts in the month of February, 1882, supporting that theory. Sir Richard Temple emphasised that fact in the course of discussion which followed. A Parsee gentleman present at that meeting controverted that theory, and in course of his argument produced figures to prove that while the foreign trade of India from five years ending 1858-59 to five years ending 1868-69 improved 116 per cent., there was no increase during the five years ending 1878-79, the years of the fluctuations or rather the depreciation of silver. The Bullionist, when reviewing Mr. Maclean's paper, referred to the Parsee speaker's figures, and said Mr. Maclean's case remained unproven. This resulted in a correspondence between Mr. Maclean and the Parsee in the columns of the Bullionist. The theory that the depreciation of silver has been beneficial to the foreign trade of India still holds good, and therefore the following letter of the series, appearing in the Bullionist of the 11th March, 1882, will not be deemed out of time in your columns.

Nov. 16.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BULLIONIST."

SIR,—Mr. J. M. Maclean concludes his letter addressed to you in your last issue in the following complimentary terms :—"Any one really conversant with Indian statistics would have been ashamed to bring forward the figures Mr.—used by way of serious argument." He finds fault with my selection of five years ending 1868-69 for a comparison with ten years earlier and ten years later not prepared to find a more unsophisticated or a little consideration would have shown him. They were the five years succeeding the American civil war, and not "during at least two years" as Mr. Maclean says. The very threshold of the period of comparison, viz., the years 1865 and 1866, was remarkable for an unprecedented commercial and financial collapse. Judge of the strength and severity of the crisis, when seven or eight Indian banks of exchange, about a score of financial associations—started on the principle of the Credit Mobilier of France—all the land companies, and all the trading associations, failed in the course of a few months. There were a very few mercantile firms left standing with any credit, at least in the Western Presidency. The most powerful leaders on the magnitude of the crisis, and its lasting bad effects, appeared in the Bombay Gazette, whose editor and proprietor Mr. Maclean then was. Mr. Maclean himself supports my assertions by the figures quoted in his letter, that during the three later years of the five, exports had fallen off something like 30 per cent. over the two former. I thought the choice of such a period for comparison was beyond cavil or criticism. But Mr. Maclean does not think so, and as he is very hard to please, I will go back a period of ten years. The annual average of exports and imports of merchandise combined for five years ending 1848-49 was Rs. 60,00,00,000 ; for five years ending 1858-59, Rs. 40,44,00,000 ; at 2s. exchange, £4,04,40,000 ; ending 1868-69 Rs. 87,56,00,000 ; at 2s. exchange, £8,75,60,000 ; ending 1878-79 Rs. 98,69,00,000 ; at 1s. 6d. exchange equal to £8,63,50,000. What would we find from the above ? That between the ten years from five years ending 1848-49 to five years ending 1858-59 the increase of Indian foreign trade was sixty per cent, and between ten years from five years ending 1858-59 to five years ending 1868-69 the increase was 116 per cent. But that during the ten years of the vicissitudes and instability of silver from five years ending 1868-69 to five years ending 1878-79 there was an actual decrease of Indian foreign trade to the extent of £30,00,000 sterling. A period of 35 years I should have thought sufficiently long for comparison. But since Mr. Maclean objects to the five years, viz., 1865-69, under misapprehension as to facts on him, take the four subsequent years 1870-73, a period before the disturbance of the stability of silver, and compare them with the choicest four years of the period of depreciation, that is, the four years 1874-77. It was a period of exceptional advantages for the growth of the foreign trade of India, and during such years the rates of increase ought to have been somewhat exceptional also. The export and import of merchandise combined during the four years 1870-73 were :—

1870	85·40 millions	Annual average—89·41
1871	89·81 "	at 2s. exchange, equal to
1872	95·30 "	89·41 millions sterling.
1873	94·12 "

The export and import of merchandise combined during the four years 1878-81 were :—

1878	103·69 millions	Annual average—100·36
1879	98·74 "	at 1s. 8d. exchange equal
1880	108·38 "	to 91·06 millions sterling.
1881	127·63 "

To recapitulate. That while during a period of 25 years before the disturbance in the stability of silver, the foreign trade of India progressed in leaps and bounds, notwithstanding great drawbacks in the means of internal communication, clear freights, and undeveloped direct communication with the ports of Southern Europe. That since the disturbance of the stability of silver the foreign trade of India has if not actually gone back, at least not progressed. That the comparison of four subsequent years before the disturbance with the four the very prime years after the disturbance of silver gives an increase of only 3 per cent. Of that 3 per cent. there is no doubt, whatever Mr. Maclean may attribute to the increased intelligence and enterprise of the people ; how much to the vastly increased network of railways and its macadamised feeders ; how much to the improved and unexampled facilities given to the development of the direct and cheapened intercourse with the Mediterranean ports ; how much to the increased production of tea, coffee, seeds, &c. ? how much to the successive defective harvests of cotton, and how much to the stability of silver during the last four years ? But that stability hangs on the forbearance of others, and how soon the avalanche might fall on the head of India, those can tell who will, or who takes some decisive action in the matter. India is yet an undeveloped country and new to commerce in the European sense of the word, and the progress of her foreign trade, under the unsympathetical ratio India has a population of 250 millions, and an increase of two shillings a head per year means an increase of the foreign trade of India by twenty-five millions sterling a year.

Many years of activity in India must have an opinion, to which Mr. Maclean hesitatingly gives countenance, that the prices of commodities in India have not risen corresponding to the depreciation of silver. Such opinion who only needs much reflection, and set all the economic laws at naught. India is not a country begirt with mountains, and inaccessible to sea, and therefore must consume her produce ; and India must pay her debts on all sides, and the prices of commodities therein are ruled and adjusted by the prices ruling in the western and eastern markets. For instance, when the exchange value of a rupee was 2s. sterling Indian cotton, which was sold for 100 rupees in India, could be purchased on the Indian sea-board for Rs 160 a candy of 784 lbs., or equal to Rs. 32 a penny. Now when the exchange value of rupee is 1s. 8d. sterling, Indian cotton, which still fetches 100 rupees, could not be purchased on an Indian sea-board under 190 rupees a candy or equal to Rs. 38 a penny, or though the selling price in Liverpool is the same, the price in India has risen 30 a candy, corresponding to the depreciation of silver ; so is the case with seeds, coffee, indigo, tea, jute, rice, &c. If the prices of these commodities in foreign countries rule the same that they did before the depreciation of silver, then the prices in India have risen correspondingly to the depreciation ; but if the prices of these commodities have fallen in other countries, they have not fallen correspondingly in India. It is for those who seriously advance assertions to put their hands on a commodity and say that the price of this has not risen corresponding to the fall in silver, and to them it could be answered in advance that the price of that commodity has fallen in the markets of the world. It is nowise easy to find the price of fair Dholleras in India was Rs. 190 a candy before the disturbance of the stability of silver, and that it is Rs. 190 now, when he knows that the fair Dholleras was sold at 6d. then and at 5d. a pound now.

But as the cultivator gets 15 to 20 per cent. more in silver for his produce, he has to pay 15 to 20 per cent. more in silver for the clothes that cover his body, the plough that tills his ground, and the scythe that cuts his crop. He is neither better nor worse situated because of the depreciation of silver. But there is another large class of population, aggregating about a hundred millions, that suffer adversely indeed by this depreciation of silver. I mean the wages-earning population, who, while they have to pay 15 to 20 per cent. more for what they buy, their wages have not risen correspondingly. If the end and aim of a good government is the greatest happiness of the greatest number, then on the head of this country falls the responsibility of failure ; for this depreciation of silver, without benefiting any class of people, has adversely affected a very large portion of Her Majesty's Indian subjects, and it contributes a loss of three millions to the revenue, which would have gone partly to lighten the taxation, to develop public works, and to ameliorate the condition of people generally. Wages do not adjust themselves quickly in India, and economic rules do not assert their influence there, as they do in highly organized countries of Europe. In India there is no migration of labour.

AGRICULTURAL WELLS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I have read "Pear's" letter of 6th inst. The information he has supplied to the "only sensible clause" of my letter is not worth the paper on which it was written. "Calculation is the soul of business," but the figures he has supplied in reference to cost of excavation of wells, cost of raising and distributing water, and the cost of raising crops of lucerne grass which kept "Pear's" nags in good condition, and prevented him from getting into the ryot's "inferno on wheels" and degrading himself. I can, indeed, say, unblushingly and without fear of contradiction, that "Pear" knows very little about kutcha wells—their durability or the geological difficulties that are in the way of the ryots. Recent orders, widely circulated, go to show that a sympathising Government is only too willing to make advances for pukka wells to contract the evil effects of life-destroying famines. But, as I have already pointed out to "Pear," the cost of raising water is of much more importance than a well itself, and all the existing methods—and I write from experience—are unprofitable for irrigation on an important scale. As "Pear" appeared before the agricultural community as an authority on well irrigation, I asked him a few plain questions, and his silence (water in India is more valuable than gold). This information I expect "Pear" to supply. It is indeed a very great pity that "Pear" cannot find, in his fashionable vocabulary of high-sounding phrases, a kind word for a poor suffering ryot-who, (I quote from one of Sir W. Wedderburn's pamphlets) "Atlas-like, bears on his shoulders the whole great framework of the Empire. But he is faint, and totters under the burden. Let us not withhold the cup of refreshing which will strengthen his weak hands, and confirm his feeble knees." I must now bid "Pear" good bye, as it would be simply useless to prolong the correspondence with him. I hope to be able, at some future time, to say a few words about wells and well irrigation.

THE LEPER HOME AT TROMBAY.

We have been requested to publish the following appeal on behalf of the Eduljee Framjee Allbless Leper Home at Trombay :—

With the generous assistance of Government the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been able to open at Trombay, in a spacious bungalow kindly given for that purpose by the worthy sons of the late Eduljee Framjee Allbless, a Leper Home as a permanent residence for fifty male lepers eligible from among all classes of the population.

Compulsory segregation being inadmissible under the English rule, the founders of this asylum desire to induce the unfortunate poor lepers voluntarily to retire to a comfortable and cheerful home, where abundance of wholesome food, good medical assistance, and compassionate charitable treatment will render their burdensome life as tolerable and agreeable as possible.

Their Excellencies the late Governor of Bombay, Sir James Fergusson, and the present Lord Reay, have permitted their names to be put down as honorary patrons. To the same title of honorary patron every gentleman will be entitled who contributes at least Rs. 1,000 for the Endowment Fund, for which it is considered that the sum of Rs. 60,000 will be sufficient.

The generous public are invited charitably to contribute towards the maintenance of the Leper Home by quarterly or half-yearly subscriptions or by donations either in money or in kind ; for instance, in furniture, clothing materials, victuals, and so on. The Leper Home committee will authorise certain persons to collect the contributions of the charitable. Cheques may be paid into the National Bank to the account of the trustees, Mr. E. F. Nicholson and Dr. P. F. Gomes, or to the Bombay Gazette or the Times of India, which journals have kindly consented to receive and to acknowledge any moneys that may be forwarded to them for the Leper Home.

ACTION ON A HOONDI.

YESTERDAY at the Small Cause Court, before Mr. W. E. Hart, Chief Judge, Govandas Balakidas and another sought to recover from Rakubdas Bugwundas the sum of Rs. 733-4-0, being the amount of a hoondi drawn by the defendant from Chunnilal Chowdhry, on account of Partalia Shewram, who endorsed it to the plaintiff, and against the firm of Motilall Balkisson, of Bombay. The hoondi, when presented, was dishonoured. Mr. Muumohun, pleader, appeared for the plaintiffs ; and Mr. Dinshaw Davur for the defendant. Mr. Munmohun applied for short postponement, on the ground that Mr. Tobin, who holds a brief in this case, as well as his clerk were temporarily absent from Bombay. He also said that his client had not received a copy of a commission which was returned on the 9th inst. Mr. Davur opposed the application, stating that his client had been served with a copy of the commission. His honour remarked that if the solicitor and his clerk chose to absent themselves, they must pay the costs of the day. The suit was adjourned to the 30th inst.

THE NEW DHURUMSEY SPINNING AND WEAVING COMPANY.

The eleventh ordinary general meeting of the shareholders of this company was held yesterday afternoon in their office in Church-gate-street, Mr. Nusserwanjee M. Panday occupied the chair, and there was a large attendance of shareholders. We take the following from the directors' report submitted to the meeting :—

In submitting to the shareholders the audited balance sheets and profit and loss accounts for the two half-years ending 31st December, 1884, and 30th June, 1885, respectively, the directors are sorry to state that the company's operations have resulted in the loss of Rs. 2,16,607-14-7 and Rs. 1,68,562-4-2 during the respective periods. The general depression of trade and the fall in prices of goods manufactured, with a steady or a rather rising cotton market which have more or less affected most other trading concerns in Bombay, have been the main causes of the unsatisfactory result, and which is in a great degree enhanced by the usual enormous load of interest accruing during the year to the sum of Rs. 1,13,413, which the company had to account for on its heavy loans. This unusual burden, which affects you prejudicially and seriously, has been repeatedly brought to your successive general meetings. The only measures calculated to relieve you of this drag, which appeared to your directors as feasible, were also submitted to you ; but they fell through owing to their unfavourable reception by you, with the result that, for want of ready cash, you have sacrificed but for the helping hand which has been extended by one of your creditors and the largest shareholders. The working of the mills, owing to financial embarrassment, had to be suspended, as stated above, from February last, but as it was found necessary to work out the stock for the purpose of meeting some of the most pressing demands, the working had to be partly resumed till April last, by which time all the stock in process was worked out and the mill completely stopped. After the period comprised in this report the mill resumed working about the middle of August, 1885, and your directors are glad to inform you that the hands have volunteered to forego the whole of the commission that they will be entitled to in respect of the yarn and cloth produced from August to 31st December, 1885. The arrangements for the future working of the mill are under consideration and not yet settled, and if they are satisfactorily arranged, so much the better ; otherwise your directors will be under the painful necessity to recommend the voluntary winding up of the business. The arrangements, if successful, will necessitate a reconstruction of the company and an augmentation of its capital, and the directors hope that they may now with confidence count upon your support and co-operation. The past experience, they think, has sufficiently shown you the destructive and ruinous result of the opposition policy adopted by a few shareholders in respect of the carrying out of the scheme submitted to you last year. Had you helped the directors in carrying through the proposals then submitted to you, your company would now have been in a sound condition as most other concerns of a similar nature. Although your directors cannot count upon a like healthy time and condition, still your directors hope that their endeavours, if successful, will place your mill on a good footing. The total cloth of various descriptions and weights turned out was 830,249 pieces, weighing 3,312,249 lbs. 12 oz., by working the weaving department for 268½ days, including the period for working out the stock, giving an average of about 3,125 pieces, weighing 12,336 lbs., per day. The total quantity of cloth of various descriptions and weights sold was 3,437,990 lbs., realizing an average rate of annas 6 9-16 per lb. The total quantity of coal purchased was 8,232½ tons, giving an average cost of Rs. 17 10-16 per ton, and the consumption averaged at about 36 tons per day, including the period for working out the stock. The total quantity of cotton purchased was net 3,772 candies and 705 lbs., giving an average cost of Rs. 161-1-4 per candy, after deducting discounts. The mill buildings and machinery are in good working order, and such repairs or replacements as required have been duly attended to at a cost of Rs. 46,925-8-5, which has been debited.

On the motion of the chairman, seconded by Mr. Frank Jefferson, the directors' report for the year ending 30th June, 1885, together with the audited accounts, was adopted unanimously. The appointment made by the board of Mr. Jeejeebhoy Dhunjeebhoy, director of the company, was approved, and Mr. Frank Jefferson, who retired by rotation, was re-elected a director. Mr. Curumchund Kalianjee was also appointed to a vacant place on the board. Messrs. Pallonjee Framjee Mehta, and Cursetjee Cooverjee Mody were appointed auditors at a remuneration of Rs. 150 each for every half-yearly audit. The proceedings concluded with the customary vote of thanks to the chairman.

THE NATIVE PRESS.

OUR DELEGATES IN ENGLAND.

MR. CHANDRAVARKAR, the Bombay delegate, has evidently gauged well the public feeling in England about Indian affairs. He has ascertained that the British public are inclined to listen to what is placed before them on the spot and are indifferent to what goes on elsewhere. From the tenor of Mr. Chandravarkar's letter we may fairly expect to see some of our friends getting selected for the new Parliament. We congratulate the delegates on the good footing they have secured in England, and keeping aloof from party politics. We must not work for either one party or the other. Our mission is to create in the members of the new Parliament an interest in Indian affairs.—Jam-i-Jamshed.

THE PENSION RULES.

THE Bombay Gazette announces that the Secretary of State for India has declined to place the Educational, Forest, and Geological Survey Departments on the same footing as the Public Works Department in the matter of pensions. It is a matter of regret that certain concessions should be withheld from the officers of one department while those of another enjoy privileges. Latterly the tendency has been to discourage in the officers of educational department in matters of promotion, pensions, &c. We think that, if this policy is continued, we shall find that in a short time accomplished men will hesitate to come out to India to serve in the department.—Jam-i-Jamshed.

HIND AND BRITTANIA.

WE have lately received a copy of the Guzarati work, Hind and Britania," about the cause and by attempts have been made by some Bombay papers to bring its author into trouble. We have carefully analysed the work and the motive with which it is written. The subject appears to be a controversy between Hind and Britania on the other, with Independence as the umpire. None of the attacking papers point out where the writer errs. On the contrary, they go at him as if they wanted to annihilate him, notwithstanding that the book has been written with a view to do harm to the British Government will not hold water one minute. A person wanting to be disloyal does not proclaim his intention in a publication we consider the editor of "Hind and Britania" a faithful subject inasmuch as honestly points out to Anglo Indian officials where the danger l

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.
THE ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE.

ADVICE TO INVALIDS.—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and nausea, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880, to J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33 Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralagia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitation.
